

Hazing Violations Report

In accordance with Section 23.1-822 of the Code of Virginia (a portion of “Adam’s Law,” effective July 1, 2022), Randolph College maintains a public report of actual findings of violations of the College’s Honor and Student Conduct Codes and/or of federal or state laws pertaining to hazing that are reported to campus authorities or local law enforcement. Also in accordance with Section 23.1-822, the public report does not include any personally identifiable information of any student involved in a hazing violation, and the report does not list investigations that do not result in findings of College violations or convictions in a court of law.

Semester
Spring 2023	Zero (0) violations of the College's Hazing Policy, or of federal or state laws pertaining to hazing.
Fall 2022	Zero (0) violations of the College's Hazing Policy, or of federal or state laws pertaining to hazing.
Spring 2022	Zero (0) violations of the College's Hazing Policy, or of federal or state laws pertaining to hazing.
Fall 2021	Zero (0) violations of the College's Hazing Policy, or of federal or state laws pertaining to hazing.
Spring 2021	Zero (0) violations of the College's Hazing Policy, or of federal or state laws pertaining to hazing.
Fall 2020	Zero (0) violations of the College's Hazing Policy, or of federal or state laws pertaining to hazing.
Spring 2020	Zero (0) violations of the College's Hazing Policy, or of federal or state laws pertaining to hazing.
Fall 2019	Zero (0) violations of the College's Hazing Policy, or of federal or state laws pertaining to hazing.

Randolph College's Hazing Policy can be found in The WildCat Way: The Randolph College Student Handbook (Page 45) located here:

<https://www.randolphcollege.edu/policies/student-handbook/>